About Nicole D'Andrea

Nicole D'Andrea has been singing and entertaining since she's been able to speak! Originally from the Boston area, she made Southwest Florida her home in 2015. Her rich, smooth vocals are a stand-out in the local music scene and her catalog spans all genres, from standards and du-wop to today.

Nicole specializes in music that just makes people feel good. Her repertoire spans multiple genres and eras, from Etta James and Doris Day to Lady Gaga and Duo Lipa. Every show is catered to the audience, so every night is a different set list. You can find her performing every week in SWFL at resorts, hotels, country clubs and restaurants in SWFL.

About Michael D'Amore

Singer and songwriter Michael D'Amore has been a professional entertainer hailing from the New York metropolitan area for 35 years. Michael's performances cover several genres with special attention devoted to harmony, which is one of his passions.

Michael currently performs as a member of The Capris and is proud to sing lead on their hits "There's A Moon Out Tonight" and "Morse Code Of Love" for music fans around the world. In recent years he has opened for and shared the stage with groups such as The Stylistics, Lou Christie, John Cafferty, The Loving Spoonful, Tony Orlando, Kenny Vance and the Planotones. Michael continues to strive for perfection in his craft and will always measure his level of success by the number of smiles in his audiences.

About the Cape Coral Museum of History

Since its inception in 1987, the Cape Coral Museum of History has sought to discover, preserve, and share the history of Cape Coral through its archives, museum exhibits and public programs. The Museum is the official repository for the history of Cape Coral and serves as a public resource for all sectors of the local community, as well as international and U.S. tourists. Operated by the Cape Coral Historical Society, the museum exhibits artifacts, documents, and photographs pertaining to the history of Cape Coral and Southwest Florida.

Located at 544 Cultural Park Blvd in Cape Coral, the Museum has three buildings and three garden areas to explore! For information on tours contact the Museum at 239-772-7037.
